He was a great man, wealthy in all the fine qualities a human can possess.

Chief Logan is our heritage, may we ever be proud.

Our dedication is not to honor a man living today, but to recall the legends of the past.

*But may we pause . . .
to pay tribute to the present.*

Co-operation is the key word with Mr. William Check and Mr. Andrew Radi as it was with Chief Logan and his braves. Although their jobs are quite different, their goals have always been to bring honor and tribute to our school.

A MESSAGE TO SENIORS:

History reflects the Indian Chief Logan as one with honor, respect and friendship for all mankind. He practiced these desirable features of human relationship until the end of his life. In spite of persecution through the murder of his family by the white man, he was loyal to the above ideals.

Today's world with its critical problems of peace and war makes it imperative that each person on the face of the earth adopt Chief Logan's ideals and practice them with singleness of purpose that mankind may survive. It appears at times that we are about to plunge into chaos, but we never quite go over the brink because there are enough people who preserve the fine ideals of Chief Logan.

May we count upon you to go beyond respect for other people and show genuine warm friendship for everyone?

Sincerely yours,

ROY D. WILSON
Supervising Principal

J. William Riden

CHIEF LOGAN SCHOOL BOARD

The Chief Logan School Board is a combination of the individual boards of Barabram, Decatur, and Derry Township. The main functions of the school board are to elect professional and non professional personnel, to provide adequate courses of study, to purchase materials, and to provide maintenance. Capital for these many functions is provided by taxation and state reimbursements.

While in Kishacoquillas Valley, Chief Logan became extremely friendly with Judge William Brown. Judge Brown had a small daughter, Mary, who was just beginning to walk. Chief Logan had heard Mrs. Brown say that she would like to have shoes for Mary so she could have support for her little feet. One day Logan asked permission to take little Mary to his lodge. With a mother's fear in her heart, but also an understanding of Chief Logan's feelings, Mrs. Brown gave her consent. As dusk was settling over the Brown cabin, Chief Logan and Mary came back. On her small feet were a pair of moccasins fashioned by Chief Logan.

Just as Mrs. Brown had faith and trust in Chief Logan to bring her daughter back, so do we, the students, have faith and trust in our faculty and administration to insure a good education and helpful guidance.

Respectfully we present our

Faculty

Guidance Department

At ole Chief Logan the Student Personnel and Guidance Services are directed by Mr. J. Gerald Woomer who is assisted part time by Mrs. Althadell Riden.

J. Gerald Woomer

Mrs. Althadell Riden

When a solution to a common problem is desired by a number of students, time is saved by using the group counseling technique employed below.

Objectives of the Guidance Department include pre-registration, advising of students, orientation, collection of comprehensive information about students, provision of educational and occupational information, testing and counseling, follow-up of students, maintenance of personnel records, assisting in problem solving and in placement, and helping with student activities.

The seniors of Ch Logan feel that this has been a wonderful year and look forward to the future. The teaching profession is always moving forward with it strives to better the education of America's future youth. A monumental building has been dedicated by the Pennsylvania State Education Association which will nobly serve as a center for new advances in teaching.

During his lifetime Chief Logan put much emphasis on the youth of his tribe. Being a man of the future he could foresee the need for great leaders, he trained his youth with this in mind. Through Chief Logan's interest, the youth of his tribe sought strength of the body, mind and heart, and succeeded in achieving these goals.

We too put emphasis on our youth. The training they attain today will be of vital importance—for they are the leaders of tomorrow.

Class of 1962

Chief Logan was a man of many interests and talents. He was a public speaker and a diplomat able to express himself very eloquently. Logan was a craftsman and a great hunter.

We as students are given a chance to develop our talents also, by participation in activities of our school. These are an important part of our education, as we strive to become interesting and well-rounded persons. A wealth of knowledge and understanding of others, the ability to work and play together, as well as many memorable experiences, are the rewards of time well spent.

Paul Mauery

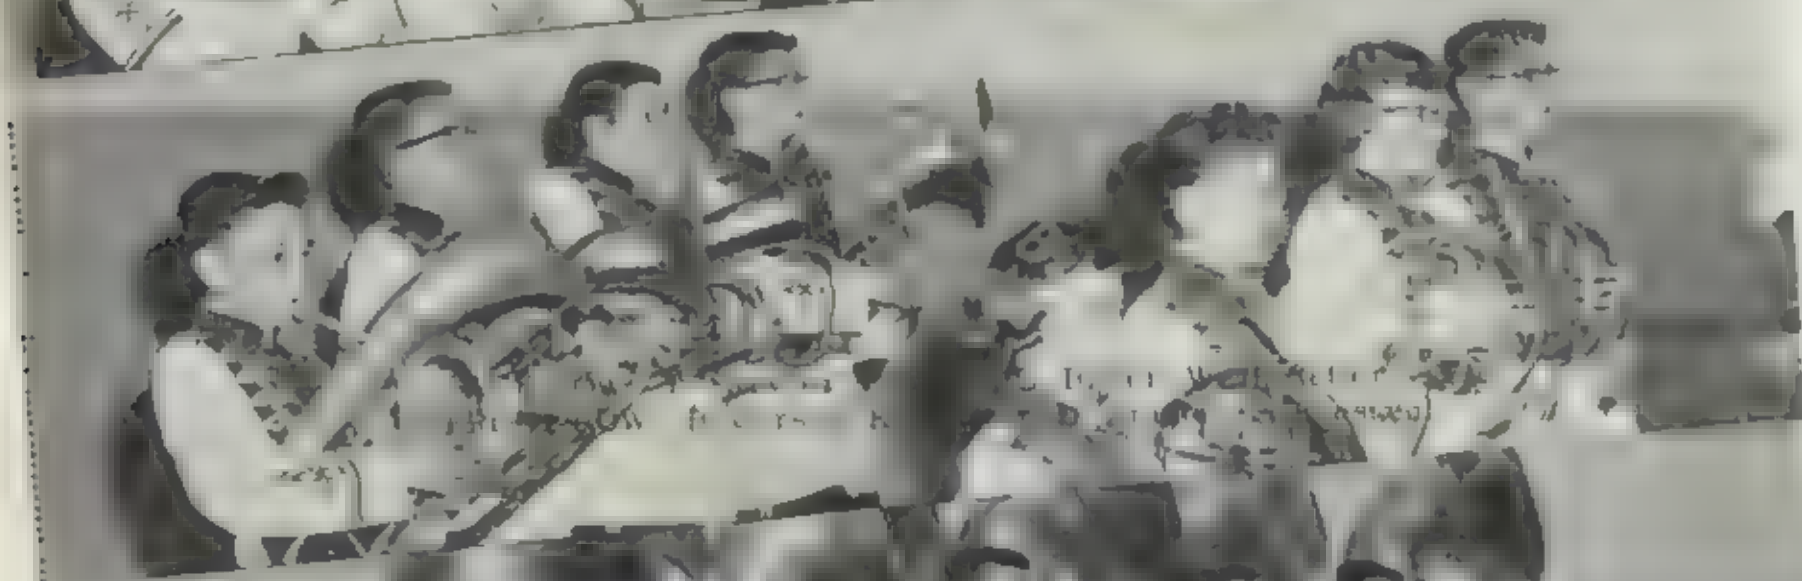

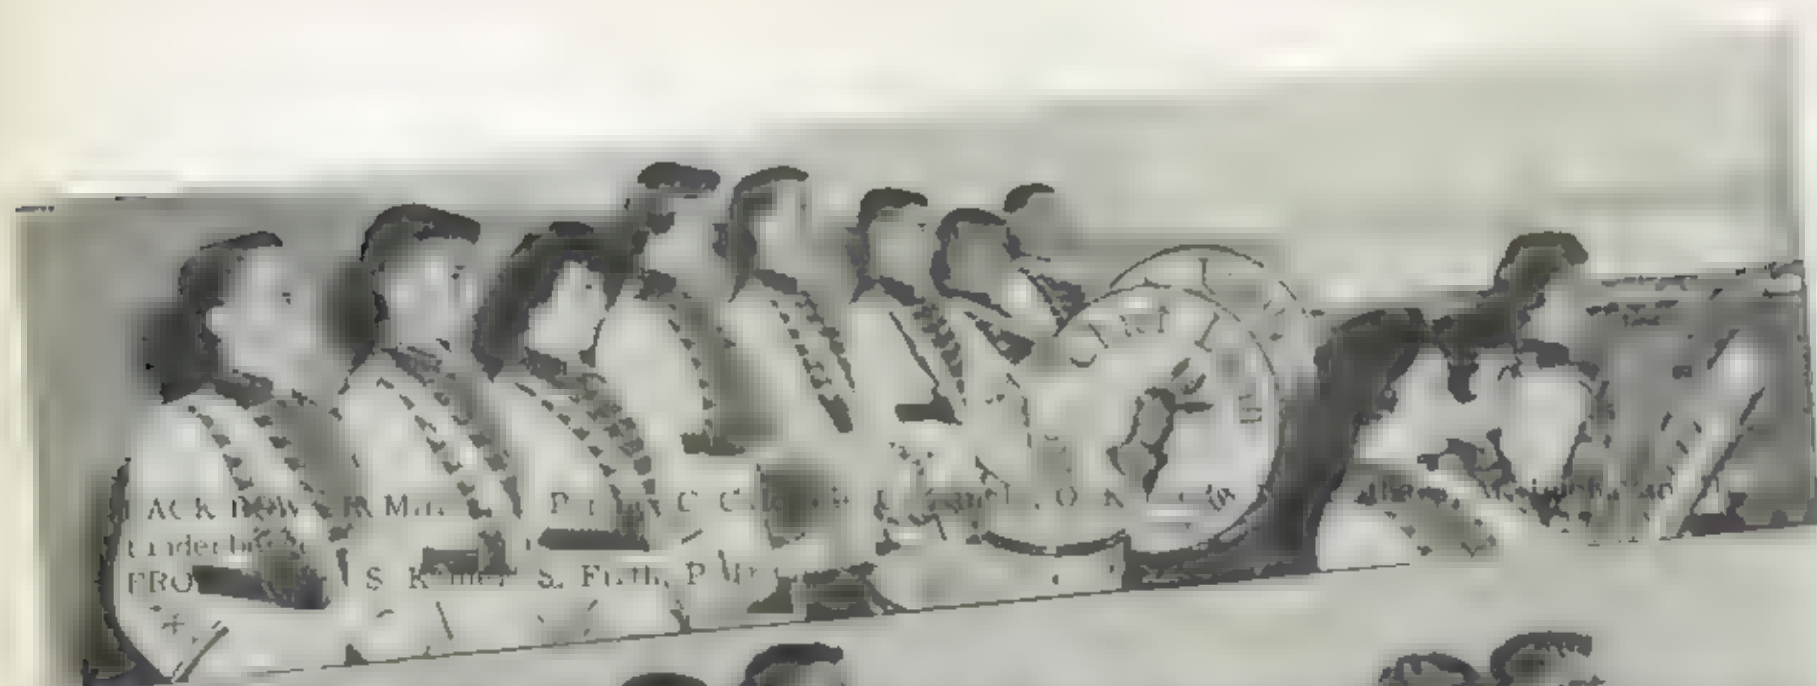

THE CHIEF LOGAN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL BAND, directed by Mr. William Check is well-known in this area for their fine performances. The Christmas and Spring Concerts are highlights of the year. Members look forward not only to the concerts, but also to other activities, such as, band camp, football games, parades, and Band Day at Penn State. The band during the Spring was again honored when they were asked to make a television appearance.

The Band Boosters Club present annually jackets and letters to the seniors who have given their time and effort to promote appreciation and understanding of good music.

Junior Band

In preparation for the coming years in the Senior Band the Junior High students are given the opportunity to participate under the direction of Mr. Clyde Scott.

The Junior Band entertains the students and the public with two annual concerts.

During the summer months the band takes part in many local festivals; and during the school year they represent Chief Logan in the local parades. The highlight of the Junior Band's school year is their appearance at one of the home football games, where they assist the Senior Band in the pre-game and half-time performances.

Library

Our library, through the interest of Mrs. Edwards and the student librarians, has increased greatly in size and quality during the past few years. A new service offered is the guidance library, which contains information pertaining to various colleges throughout the country.

Monthly dinner meetings are held in the cafeteria and each year the group travels to some institution of higher learning to examine the facilities and acquaint themselves with the program of the school. One more activity, cadet teaching, introduces the members to their desired career, and helps them decide whether or not they are really suited for teaching.

F.T.A.

The students forming the letters "F.", "T.", and "A." are Chief Logan's teachers of the future.

Through lectures from teachers of varied subjects, the organization tries to help the members decide what field of higher education they will pursue.

Mrs. Steele and Miss Hoover, the co-advisors, help set up a program whereby the students become acquainted with the qualities of a good teacher.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are four of the most needed and most desirable qualities in today's world. Students of Chief Logan High School having these qualities are honored by membership into one of our newest organizations--The National Honor Society. The Society is nationwide, and in 1960 under the guidance of Mrs. Riden the Chief Logan Chapter was begun. Since then, this organization has been especially active in the school, and has sponsored many new and lively activities.

Debate Squad

"Resolved that the Federal government should equalize education by means of grants to public elementary and secondary schools."

This is the proposition that our debate squad, coached by Mrs. Steele, and all other squads in the United States have been debating this year.

Debating teaches the students to think, concentrate, and organize facts into a meaningful idea.

P. Davis, R. Druckenmiller, C. Gallucci, L. Dobbs, S. Farren, J. Musser, W. Engle, G. Musser

Student Council

Important among the list of activities at Chief Logan High School is the Student Council. This organization sponsors many extra services for the students. These include the school radio news program, the annual Christmas Dance, and the weekly news column by the Mingoettes published in the Sentinel.

The Student Council is comprised of one student from each of the 34 homerooms. These elected students speak on behalf of their fellow classmates. Under the direction of Mr. Woomer, the group has done a very commendable job concerning its roll as a student governing body.

MINGOETTES

B. Johnson, L. Morgan, J. Runtagh, Miss Hunter, Advisor R. Druckenmiller.

The seniors have now, in many ways, reached the real starting point of their lives. They have secured a basic training from scholastic studies, and an understanding of people from the varied activities in which they have engaged.

Even though they must part, they shall still hold close to their hearts the treasured memories of their school years.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Swing Your Partner" directed by Mrs. Elizabeth
Steele, Mr. Gary
Mowery, and Mr.
Ronald Harshbarger was the unique comedy performed
as the Junior Class Play.

"SWING YOUR PARTNER"

For two consecutive nights, the production was staged by two fine casts. The setting was the Dudley Dude Ranch. The plot centered around the bespectacled bug-hunter, Bertram Weeks, and his triumph over the bold cowhand for the lovely Barbara Young. Loud-mouthed Henrietta Dudley and constantly scratching Hulda brought laughs galore to this outlandishly humorous play.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Who can say whether the audience or the actors enjoyed "Andy" most? This romantic comedy tells the story of the small town boy who comes to the big city to take his childhood sweetheart back home with him. The humor begins when he finds her in Greenwich Village. Add a vicious criminal, an ear-splitting soprano, a black mailing communist, and two chorus girls and you have an explosive mixture for a fast acting frolic.

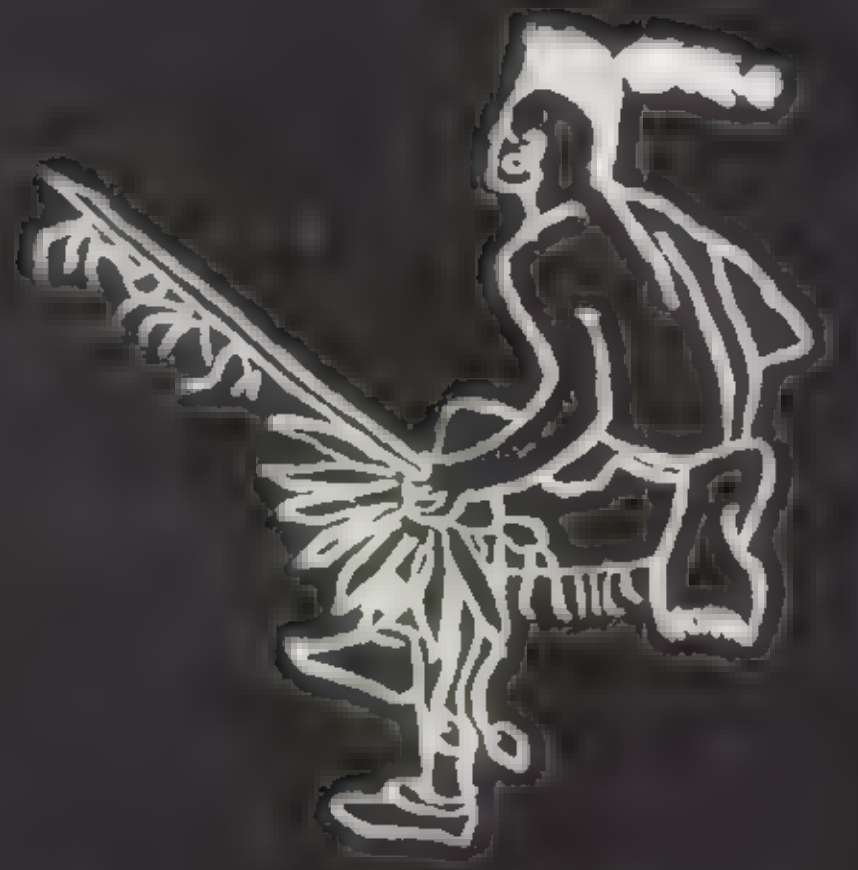

"ANDY"

This production was given under the direction of Mr. Ronald Harshbarger, Mrs. Elizabeth Steele and Mr. Ronald Notestine.

Just as the Indian Chief Logan was noted for his respect and fair play, the boys who participate in athletic events have upheld this practice of sportsmanship. It has enriched their lives and the lives of those who have come in contact with them.

Minds as well as strong bodies were molded in the preparation of young Indians. In many aspects, the self-imposed discipline that is needed to become proficient in the world of athletics is similar to the training that young braves received many years ago.

The rewards of a rigid program of athletics can be seen in the successful seasons of our teams. Under the coaches' guiding hands, ideals were sought and won.

Lewistown, Panthers.

Don DeArment scored 4 out of the 5 touchdowns against Milton. Rowe converted the remaining touchdown upping the score to a pleasing 32-7 against the Panthers.

With the downing of Altoona Catholic, Chief tied with Clifton Heights for the longest winning streak in Pennsylvania. It was a businessman's holiday when the Green and White combatted the Marauders closing with an end score of 45-13.

The Bald Eagle was grounded with a snappy score of 39-0. The Chief's understudies got into the act by scoring one touchdown. It was a cool night but a warm game for the Mingoos.

The worst loss since 1931 was handed the Panthers of Lewistown with a tally of 53-0. Chief's line completely stifled Lewistown's offense. All cylinders were hitting to have the Mingoos play their best game of the year.

Our Victorious Season

A near capacity crowd turned out at Yeagertown to watch Chief Logan play and win the first game of the season. Captain Jack just didn't have what was needed and suffered a defeat to the tune of 26-0.

State College bowed out losing to the Mingoos by a score of 34-12. There were no easy touchdowns. Each score was a result of a well planned drive masterminded by quarterback Dick Gingrich. A staggering 349 yards were compelled by the Mingo gridders.

The 16th straight win materialized when Holidaysburg fell victim to a composite of 34-12. Every Mingo in uniform saw action. Rowe chalked up his 4th and 5th touchdown of the year and made a spectacular 45 yard plunge.

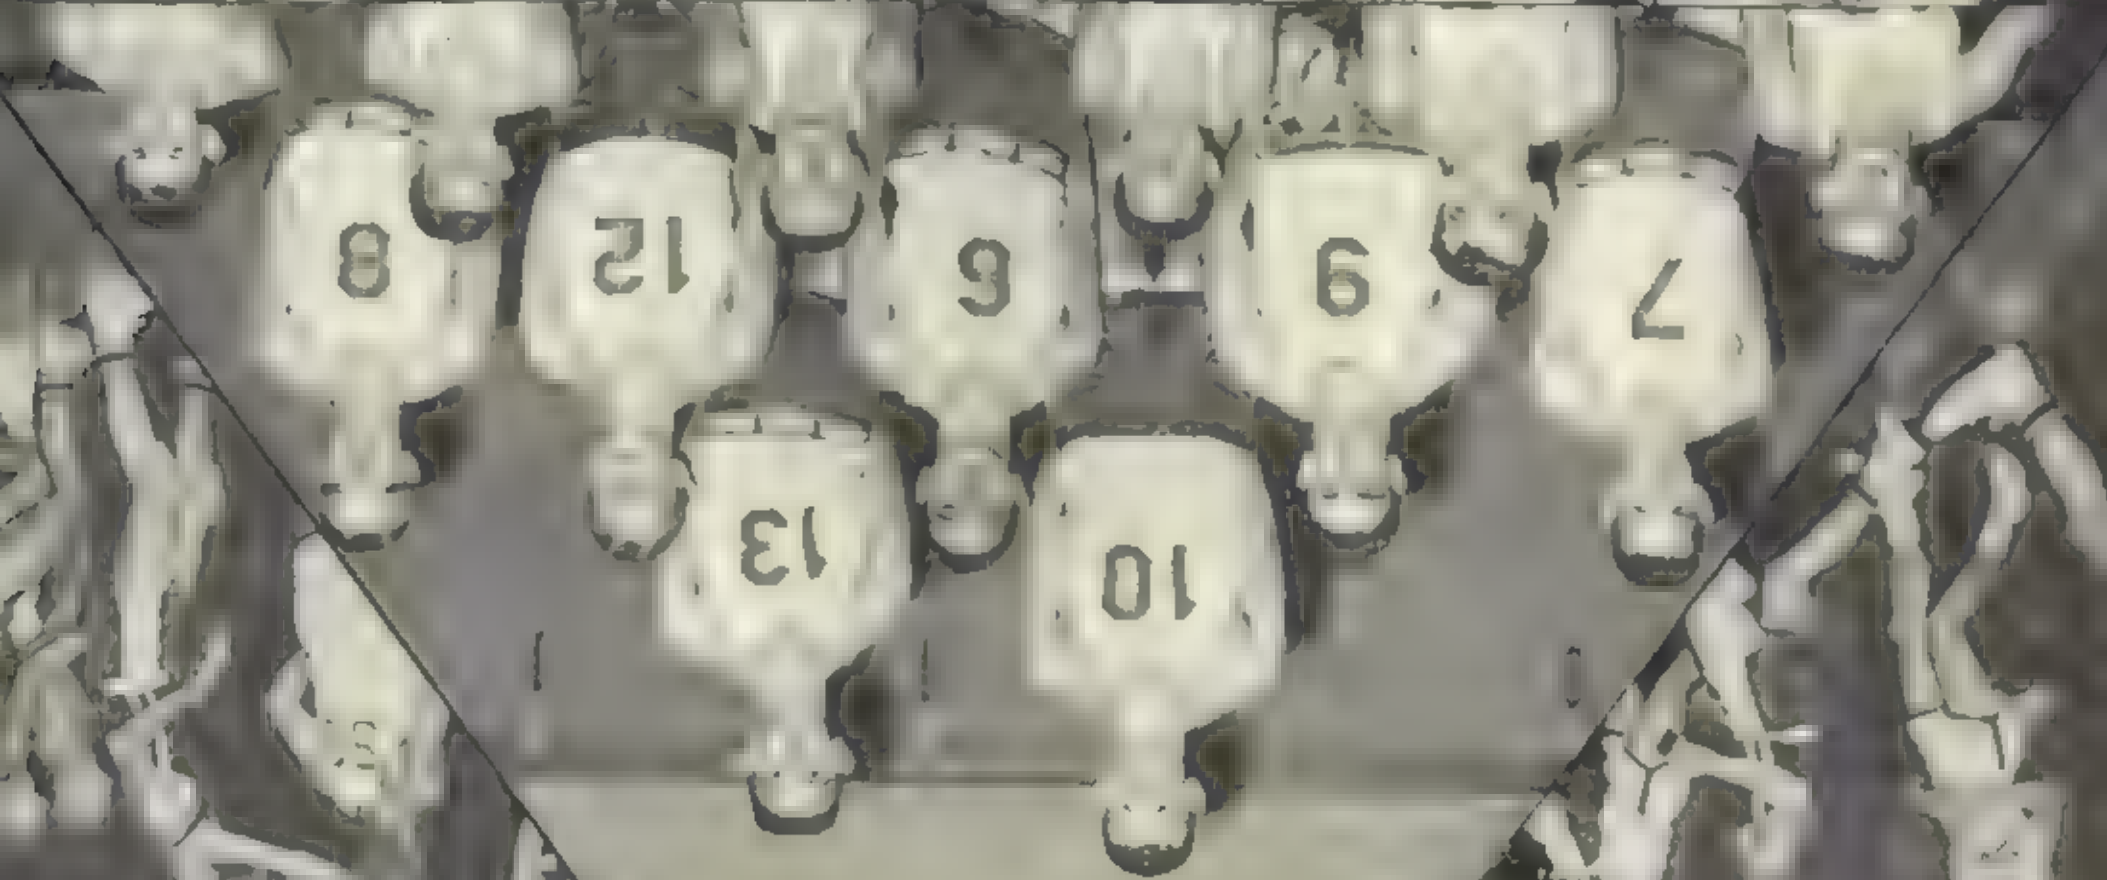

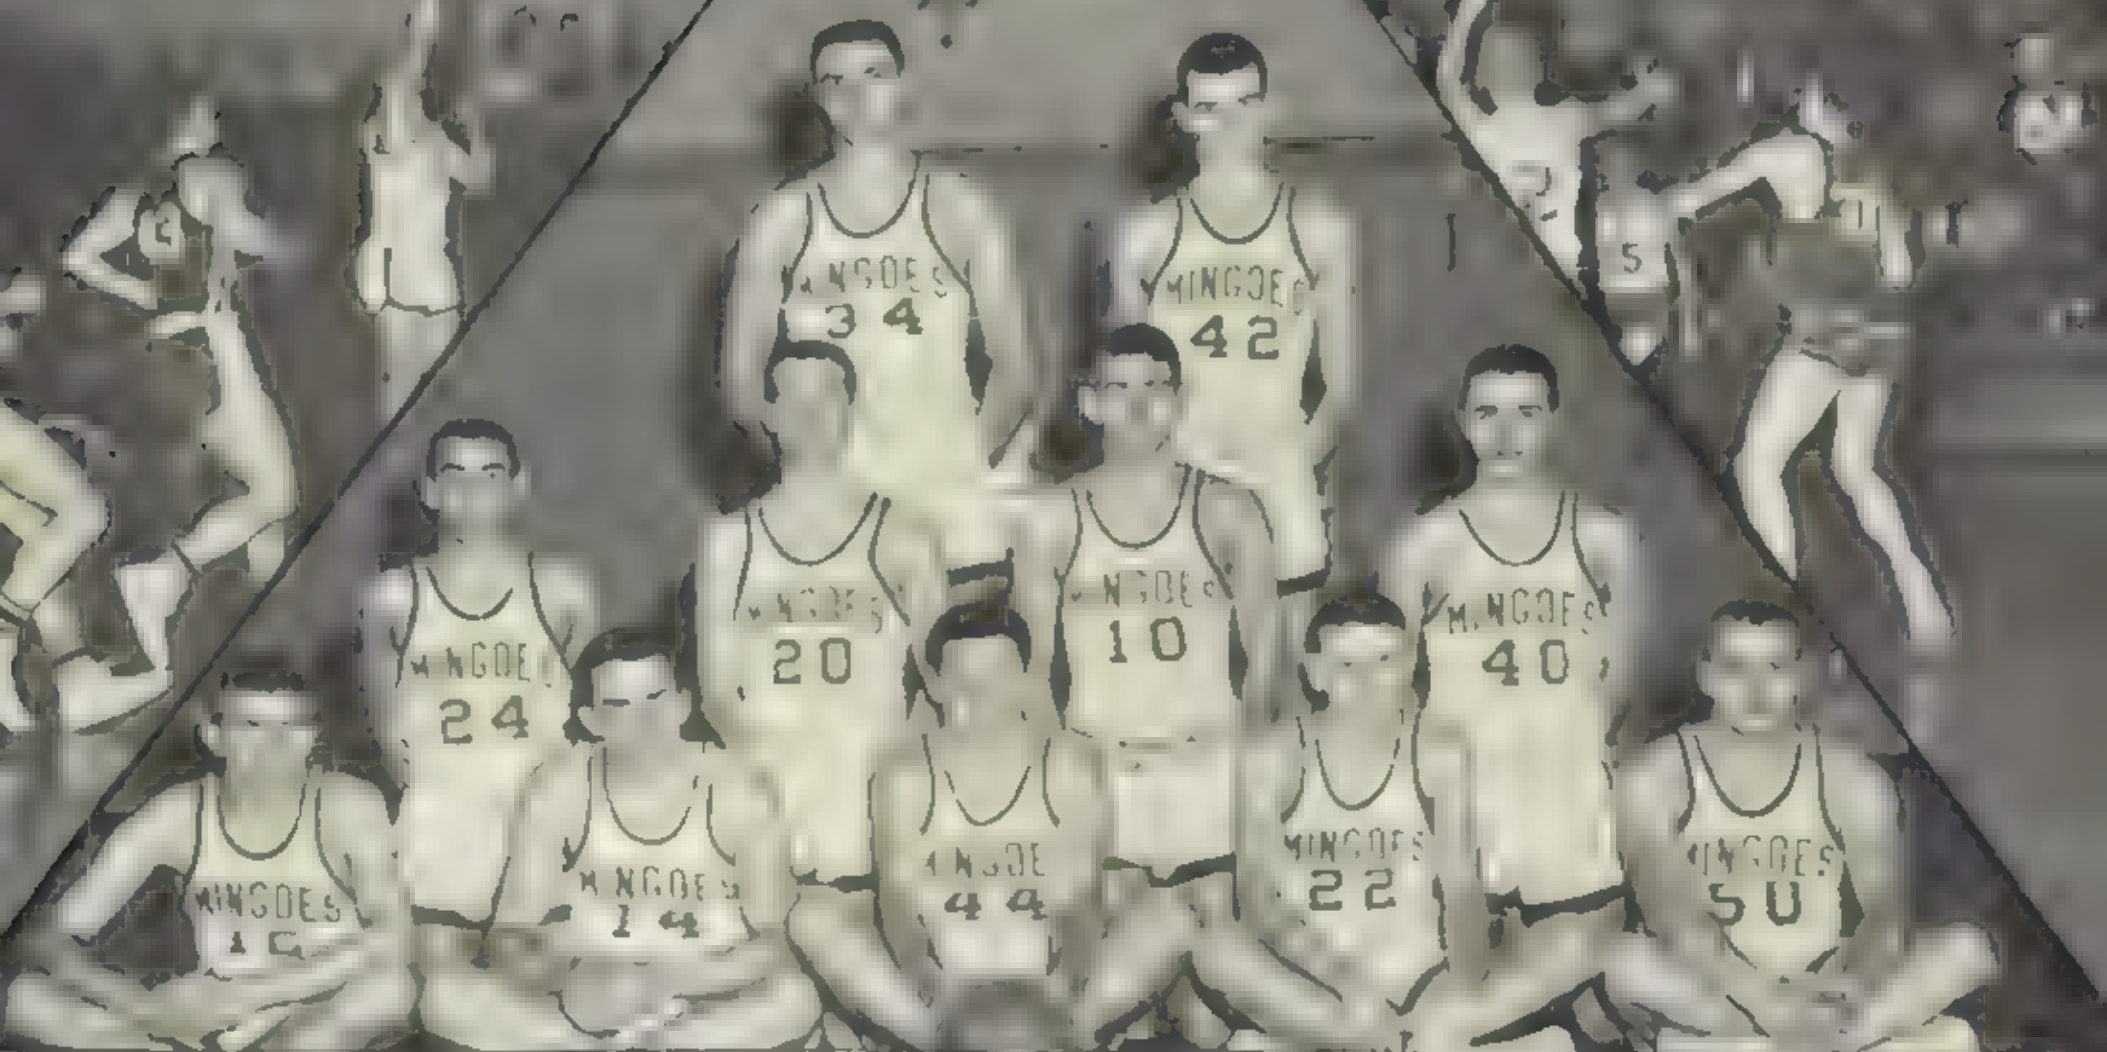

Under ideal weather conditions Rowe and DeArment lead a frontal attack that ended in the defeat of Huntingdon with a culmination of 26-7. The Bearcats made this game one of the roughest of the year for Chief.

When the Green and White overran Juniata-Joint with a tally of 68-14 the Mingoos had the longest undisputed record of wins in the state. It was the 22nd consecutive win, and added 68 points for a record 361 points.

Chief Logan Varsity Basketball Team

The ball is lofted high into the air, the whistle sounds and another season on the hardwoods has started. Basketball is again a prominent sport at Chief Logan. Chief, one of the better teams in Central Pennsylvania, plays in the Tri-Valley Basketball League. Victories are many; defeats are few in the 61-62 season. Mr. Prisuta has done a fine job of coaching--as indicated by our winning record.

The first game of the season was one of the most important games of the year. The Mingoos came out on top 54-53. The win was entirely a team effort as six boys contributed greatly. The high scorer was Dick Gingrich. But Gary Rowe put in the winning foul shot with only four seconds remaining.

Another very important contest was the game played at Kishacoquillas. This was one of the best team games played by the Mingoos. The teamwork was superb and the scoring evenly spaced with Dick Gingrich and Gary Rowe leading 22 and 18 respectively. John Zarkovich and Don Baumgardner did the bulk of the rebounding.

Chief Logan's greatest competitor was West Snyder's Mounties who defeated the Mingoos in the early part of the season. The Mingoos got revenge however, and defeated the Mounties in the latter part of the season by a 54-53 score. The win clinched the Tri-Valley Basketball League for our team. The offensive attack was led by Dick Gingrich, Gary Rowe, and Ozzie Royer. Outstanding defensive players were Don Baumgardner and Ozzie Royer.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. Prisuta and his boys for a job well done. Congratulations are also in order for the support of the students and by our captain cheerleaders

Chief Logan Varsity Wrestling Squad

The matmen of Chief Logan started another year under the coaching of Mr. Roselle and Mr. Shirk. There are many new faces on the wrestling squad this year, each determined to be a starting wrestler for the next match.

Wrestling has become, in the past couple of years, a popular sport at Chief Logan. We are indeed grateful for the fine support received from all the Mingo fans in the area.

Chief Logan captured the Tri-Valley Wrestling Crown when they upset a highly favored Penns Valley matchcrew 25-20 in a special post season meet to determine the league championship.

At mid-season the Mingoos only sported a 1-5 record, but our grapplers came on strong in the downhill swing to sweep their last eight meets, including the playoff, to finish the campaign with a respectable ledger of 9-5.

THE GREATEST DAY

February 20, 1962, marked an eventful day in the life of each American. This was the day that Colonel John Glenn Jr. orbited the earth three times. He was the first American astronaut to achieve this goal. On this same day, Chief Logan made history, too. By the victorious game over West Snyder, Chief Logan attained the "Triple Crown." This "Triple Crown" means that the Mingoos obtained first, the longest present winning streak in football, second, the wrestling squad won the Tri-Valley Championship, and third, the Mingoos took the Tri-Valley League Championship in basketball.

This important day will long be remembered by all for Glenn's three orbits and our "Triple Crown." For each of Glenn's orbits--the Mingoos achieved one well-earned goal.

Our thanks to Colonel Glenn and congratulations to each Mingo that made our honor possible.

Track

The track team, two years old now, is hailed by many as the exciting new sport of our school.

During the past year, many activities were taking place at Chief Logan. They all served to prepare the student for a life on his own. In the world of today a sound basic knowledge is necessary for success. The student must finish certain required courses, but, as illustrated on this and the following pages, he is always encouraged to participate in activities which he enjoys.

Chief Logan and his tribesmen were adventurous people—they never stopped seeking honors to win in the name of their fellow mankind.

The Senior Class of 1962 has carried on this characteristic of the Mingo Tribe. Honors have been won extending from the grid-iron to the throne!

We are proud of these, our fellow Seniors, and we salute them.

National Merit Scholarship Finalist

Joseph Musser has attained the status of finalist in National Merit Scholarship Contest. To have received this honor, he had to compete with others in a test showing academic ability. For achieving this award, Joe will receive a partial scholarship toward furthering his education and will be remembered for bringing much honor and recognition to our school.

D. A. R. Award

Each year the Daughters of the American Revolution present an award to a senior girl who shows service to others, a pleasing personality, and has a high scholastic standing. All members of the senior class choose candidates to receive this honor. The winner of the award is selected by the faculty members from these candidates.

Peggy Dunn is deserving of the honor of outstanding citizen of Chief Logan High School.

Chief Logan was a close friend of Judge Brown, one of the first judges of Mifflin County. While hunting bear one day, Judge Brown came to a stream and stooped down to drink from it. Suddenly, in the clear waters, he saw the reflection of an Indian. He scrambled for his rifle, but the Indian knocked up the powder horn of the rifle, and extended his hand in the token of friendship. The Indian was Chief Logan. Judge Brown later said of him, "He is the best specimen of humanity I have ever met, white or red."

Since that day long ago, many men have drunk from the stream's waters. Many have walked by it, many have admired its beauty. Perhaps the seeds of other friendships have been planted there.

A stream must flow onward—rapidly, quickly toward its destination—the river. Then still onward, until one day it reaches the climax of its life and becomes the mighty ocean. From humble but noble beginnings, come the bonds which unite all peoples of the world.

As the waters of the small stream move, so do the seniors of Chief Logan. We pass with no tears of sadness, but rather with happiness—hopes for the future, reverence for the past and dreams that soon we will take our place in that great ocean which unites all the world in faith, love and understanding.

The Logan stream must, as all streams, flow forward—never turning back or hesitating for the purpose of regaining lost waters. As time passes, streams take on new courses, adding more new water, but at the same time, losing more and more of the old. Our stream, in its prime must make its first change in course, leaving behind a dear friend and classmate. As we move out into an even larger stream, may we always hold deep in our minds, a memory of one who helped to make up our very beginning

In his end, Logan was a broken man—broken in spirit and in heart. At the peak of this tragic portion of his life, he met with Colonel John Gibson under the famed "Logan Elm" to pour out his innermost feelings which were recorded and stand today as a symbol for the great need of understanding among men.

We leave to those who follow us these his words, but may they also remain in our hearts. From the wisdom of Chief Logan may we gain wisdom for a greater understanding of all peoples.

"I appeal to any white to say if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry, and I gave him not meat, if ever he came cold or naked, and I gave him not clothing. During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained in his tent an advocate for peace. Nay, such was my love for the whites, that those of my own country pointed at me as they passed, and said, 'Logan is the friend of the white man.' I had even thought to live with you, but for the injuries of one man, Colonel Cresap, the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, cut off all the relatives of Logan, not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any human creature. This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. Yet do not harbor the thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

For here's to thee, Chief Logan
Long may you reign supreme
Your high ideals we'll cherish
And your merits we'll esteem
We'll win for you Chief Logan
High honors and true fame
We ever will be loyal, and We'll praise your grand-ole name
